Dig Up a Good Book!

The 2011 Texas Reading Club, "Libraries: Dig Up a Good Book!" provides opportunities for children of all ages to enjoy reading. This self-paced reading program allows children to participate at their own reading level. A log will be provided to each child to track the books they read. In addition to reading, the library will have special guests who will inspire you to, dig up Jean Lafitte's pirate loot and dig up Fortune Cookie history.

Location: Port Isabel Public Library, 213 N. Yturria St., Port Isabel

Registration: Tues., May 31 through Tues., June 7

Parents must register their children at the library.
